

SARJITO, S.H., S.E., MBA., M.Kn.

Mr. Sarjito is the Founder and Managing Partner of FOR SHIELD LAW FIRM.

Prior to his position, he was Deputy Commissioner of Business Conduct Supervision and Consumer Protection of Financial Services Authority (Otoritas Jasa Keuangan) where he supervised business conducts for all Financial Service Sectors such as banks, insurances, securities companies, investment managements, financial companies, pension funds, peer to peer lending, etc.

He was also the Chairman of the Task Force for Eradicating Illegal Activities in the Financial Sectors which had 19 members; OJK, Bank Indonesia, State Police, Public Prosecutor, Financial Intelligence Unit, The State Intelligence Agency and 13 Ministries.

He devoted the vast majority of his career in capital market sectors. He was Head of Bureau for Formal and Criminal investigations, Indonesia Capital Market Supervisory Agency-Ministry of Finance. He then became Deputy Commissioner for Capital Market Supervision, Otoritas Jasa Keuangan which responsible for capital market supervision, especially in the field of regulation, investigation, sanction and appeal, sharia, corporate governance, and accounting standard.

He holds an Undergraduate Degree in Law specializing in Legal Practitioner from Faculty of Law, University of Indonesia. He also earned his Undergraduate Degree from Faculty of Economics, Gadjah Mada University, and obtained his MBA degree in Finance from Saint Louis University, Missouri, USA. He also holds Professional Notary Degree from Jayabaya University